

AFTER

Continued bad news from the battlefields kept support for the war discouragingly low in the Northern states.

LINCOLN'S REELECTION IMPERILED

DIGGING UP THE REMAINS OF THE FALLEN AT COLD HARBOR, ONE YEAR AFTER THE BATTLE

News of the carnage at Cold Harbor sapped spirits at the Republican national convention, meeting on June 7-8 in Baltimore to nominate President Lincoln for a second term.

SHERMAN IMPEDED

In Georgia, Joseph E. Johnston, withdrawing from one line of forbidding entrenchments to another, eluded Sherman's traps, stalling Union progress toward Atlanta (see Sherman's Advance to Atlanta).

SHATTERED CONFIDENCE

Soldiers in the Army of the Potomac were so unnerved by the slaughter that, days later, they balked at attacking the thinly defended trenches outside Petersburg (see Grant Advances to Petersburg).
