

PROCTOR

The man who came to be called Proctor was actually the BLACK KNIGHT of an alternate Earth. While serving as a member of the AVENGERS, he met and fell in love with the Sersi of his world. He became her "gann josin," a mate that was forever bound to her by a mental link that allowed them to share their powers, thoughts and souls. His Sersi eventually became mentally unstable, destroying their world and rejecting Proctor.

Desperate for revenge, Proctor and his companions used a gateway into alternate dimensions and journeyed across the multiverse. They were on a quest to kill every alternate world version of Sersi, along with every world and Avenger that had ever befriended her. They gathered and rescued all the alternate-Avengers that they deemed worthy of life.

After defeating the Black Knight of the real Earth, Proctor was slain by this world's Sersi. TD

Proctor possessed the battle prowess of the real Black Knight, and the mental and physical powers of an Eternal because he had become one with the Sersi of his world.

(October 2003)

Prodigy has the mutant ability to absorb (although not permanently) the skills and knowledge of those near him. He cannot, however, absorb their mutant powers.

High above the US Capitol, Prodigy tangles with fellow X-Men member Wind Dancer.

PRODIGY

Four different men used the name Prodigy in recent years. The first was SPIDER-MAN, who employed it as one of four different identities when he was a wanted man. College athlete Richie Gilmore took over this exact identity after Spider-Man abandoned it. He is perhaps best known for being the first hero to publicly defy the Superhuman Registration Act. He has since joined the Fifty State Initiative (see pp. 118-9).

The third Prodigy, David Alleyne, was unrelated to the first two. His mutant powers allowed him to absorb the knowledge of anyone nearby, although the knowledge faded when they parted. He lost his powers on M-Day, but he can now remember every bit of knowledge he ever absorbed. He remains with the X-MEN, now as a teacher.

The fourth Prodigy, Timothy Wilkerson, is a young man who was mutated with the LEADER's gamma-irradiated DNA. He joined the Gamma Corps to take down the HULK during World War Hulk (see pp. 152-5), but he now helps their efforts to bring the ILLUMINATI to justice instead.
