

THE ANNIHILATION WAVE

The invasion forces that Annihilus assembled in relative safety of the Negative Zone proved to be the largest fighting force the galaxy had ever seen. At the height of its powers, it destroyed nearly all of the mighty Skrull and Kree Empires and even captured the Silver Surfer and Galactus. At the moment known as Annihilation Day, Annihilus's forces destroy the Kryn super-prison and launch their war on the positive-matter universe.
