

■ SMARTPHONE LAUNCH

Realme P4x with MediaTek Dimensity 7400 Ultra launched

Realme has expanded its P series in India with the launch of the Realme P4x 5G, targeting gamers and power users. The phone features a 6.72-inch Full HD+ LCD display with a 60Hz to 144Hz variable refresh rate and 1,000 nits peak brightness. It is powered by the MediaTek Dimensity 7400 Ultra chipset, paired with up to 8GB RAM and 256GB storage. A large 7,000mAh battery with 45W fast charging powers the device. It runs Android 15 with realme UI 6.0. The camera setup includes a 50MP primary sensor, stereo speakers, in-display fingerprint sensor, IP64 rating, and dual 5G support. Pricing starts at ₹15,999. tinyurl.com/dbny81s

■ MONITORS LAUNCHED

Philips Evnia 27M2N5500XD: One of the first 1000Hz monitors

Philips, a subsidiary of TPV Technology, has announced the Evnia 27M2N5500XD gaming monitor in China, targeting competitive esports. The 27-inch display runs at 2560 x 1440 resolution with a 500 Hz refresh rate and can switch to 720p to reach an industry-first 1,000 Hz. It uses a dual-mode high-contrast IPS panel with a 2,000:1 contrast ratio, offering deeper blacks than older IPS displays. The monitor delivers a 1 ms response time and meets VESA DisplayHDR 400 standards. It is factory calibrated to Delta E below 2 for accurate colours. The same panel was also showcased on the AOC Agon AGP277QK. Pricing and availability details remain unconfirmed. tinyurl.com/s21yuvd

BenQ launches TK705i, TK705STi 4K Google TV projectors in India

BenQ has launched the TK705i and TK705STi 4K smart projectors in India, priced at Rs 1,99,990 and Rs 2,25,000. Both offer true 4K output, Google TV with Netflix, 3,000 ANSI lumens brightness, and gaming-focused 5ms input lag. The TK705STi's short-throw design targets compact homes, positioning both as premium large-screen alternatives to smart TVs for mixed entertainment use. tinyurl.com/ew27f6

Portronics Iron Beats 5 Prime party speaker with 250W output

Portronics has launched the Iron Beats 5 Prime in India, a 250W wireless party speaker aimed at home and outdoor gatherings.

Priced at Rs 13,999, it features dual 8-inch subwoofers with Bass Boost, Bluetooth 5.3, and an 8,000mAh battery rated for up to six hours. The speaker includes USB, Aux-In and guitar inputs, TWS pairing, RGB lighting, and a bundled wireless UHF karaoke microphone, positioning it as a single-box party and karaoke solution. tinyurl.com/7gujs9z

Haier launches new Gravity AI Series AC with self-cleaning outdoor unit

HHaier has launched the Gravity AI series of premium air conditioners in India, powered by its AI-AtmoX platform. Unveiled at the AI for Air event, the range offers predictive climate control, automated indoor and outdoor unit cleaning, geofencing-based pre-cooling, and energy tracking. Prices start at Rs 49,990, with availability across online and offline stores. tinyurl.com/8qeusb