

Top OnePlus tech to buy

Sale or not, OnePlus gadgets are always in vogue. The OnePlus brand is always one of the top preferred brands among Indian tech buyers. With that in mind, here are some of the latest and greatest OnePlus products available in India right now.

OnePlus 15 series

First and foremost, let's look at the OnePlus 15 series. The performance powerhouse, the OnePlus 15 is worth checking out if you're considering a flagship smartphone upgrade. Powered by the latest Snapdragon 8 Elite Gen 5 and coming in with a massive 7,300 mAh battery, it is one of the best smartphones out there for uncompromised performance, powerhouse camera, and elegance.

We also can't miss mentioning the OnePlus 15R. It is the first device to be powered by the new Snapdragon 8 Gen 5! Along with that, it houses a big 7,400 mAh battery with plenty of bells and whistles. Gamers, especially, are definitely going to have a great time with the OnePlus 15R.

OnePlus Nord series

Along with its flagships, OnePlus also has the Nord series for mid-range buyers. Speaking of which, the Nord 5 is definitely a worthy phone to aspire of, thanks to its Snapdragon 8s Gen 3 chip. The 144Hz AMOLED display, along with the massive 6,800 mAh battery, gives it exceptional value within its price segment.

If you want something even more affordable, OnePlus still has something special in store for you. The Nord CE5 is the most affordable device in its star-studded phone lineup, and it doesn't make any major sacrifices to get there. Powered by the Dimensity 8350, its performance does not lack anywhere. Along with that, it offers a massive 7,100 mAh battery, and better-than-average camera performance.

OnePlus Pads

If you're in the market for a new tablet, the OnePlus Pad 3 has to be on your radar. It's one of the best Android tablets available right now. Powered by the Snapdragon 8 Elite, it does not slow down even during heavy multitasking, and it's well built, despite its elegant design. It's pretty light for on-the-go use. Its 3.4K 144Hz AMOLED display ensures all the latest movies and TV shows are a treat to watch. Definitely worth considering.

OnePlus Buds 4

Finally, OnePlus also makes very good audio products. Their most recent offering, the OnePlus Buds 4, is one of the best in its price segment. Support for Hi-Res Audio, along with LHDC, makes it an excellent choice for the audiophiles. Its Dynamic ANC, combined with the all-day battery backup, makes these TWS headphones an excellent choice for just about anyone out there. ■
