

Your phone holds your whole life.
Your storage needs a Plan B.

BeeStation Plus

Store everything here, access anywhere

Your photos, chats, documents, and memories often live on just one device — your phone. But phones get lost, damaged, or run out of space.

BeeStation Plus gives you a simple private cloud at home. Automatically back up photos and files from your phone and computers, organize everything in one place, and access them anytime, anywhere — while keeping full control of your data.

Recommended if you..

01 Keep irreplaceable memories on your phone

02 Prioritize simplicity and easy access

03 Value security and full control of your data
