

A Google search looks at 1,000
computers in 0.2 seconds

The fastest computer in the world is the Sunway TaihuLight. It can do 39 quadrillion calculations per second!

10

Collossus machines were used at Bletchley Park in the UK to help crack German codes during World War II.

200

is the number of hours it took to create Spacewar, one of the first video games.

24 LB

The first laptop computer weighed 24 lb (11 kg). That's the same as an 18-month-old child!

