

1967

JANUARY 6–15

US and South Vietnamese Marines carry out a major amphibious operation in the Mekong Delta.

JANUARY 8–26

In Operation Cedar Falls, the US carries out a large-scale search-and-destroy action to clear the Viet Cong from their “Iron Triangle” stronghold north of Saigon.

Cedar Falls, January 1967

FEBRUARY 22

Operation Junction City, the largest US military offensive of the war, is launched.

APRIL 15

Large-scale marches take place in New York City and San Francisco, attracting hundreds of thousands of antiwar protesters.

APRIL 20–24

US aircraft target Haiphong Harbor and attack North Vietnamese airfields for the first time in a significant escalation of the air war.

APRIL 24–MAY 11

US Marines repulse North Vietnamese troops in a series of actions around the Marine combat base at Khe Sanh.