

Stamp of approval

France introduced postage for Indochina from the 1890s. This stamp, issued in 1904, is inspired by France, but later stamps often depicted local scenes and people in traditional dress.