

Appealing image

This communist propaganda poster reading "She made a determined attack on enemy positions" encourages women to serve as combatants. Others took a different approach, showing women harvesting rice or holding children.