

Revolutionary comrades

Vietnamese nationalists Vo Nguyen Giap (left) and Ho Chi Minh (right) were leading figures in the founding of the Viet Minh independence movement in 1941. They were both dedicated communists, loyal to the Soviet-run Comintern.