

Retaking Hill 875

US troops from the 2nd Brigade of the 503rd Airborne Infantry Regiment destroy enemy bunkers after retaking Hill 875 during the closing stages of the Battle of Dak To in November 1967.

Mobile ack-ack

One of the few ways the North Vietnamese could counter total American domination of the skies above South Vietnam was the use of mobile anti-aircraft guns mounted on armored cars.