

Shrine to Ho

The Ho Chi Minh Museum at Kim Lien, near Ho's birthplace, celebrates the Vietnamese leader's life. Since his death in 1969, Ho has been glorified by the Vietnamese people, with his image appearing everywhere: as statues, in posters, and propaganda.

“The storm is [an] opportunity for the pine and the cypress to show strength and stability.”

HO CHI MINH IN FROM COLONIALISM TO COMMUNISM BY VAN CHI HOANG, 1964