

In recognition of valor

The highest military decoration of South Vietnam, the Military Merit medal was awarded mostly to enlisted men for valor in combat. Established in 1950, the medal was modeled after the French Médaille Militaire. It was last awarded in 1975.