

Packing parachutes

Following the establishment of a training school for female soldiers in 1966, soldiers of the Women's Armed Forces Corps of the ARVN took on a variety of support roles. Here, a group of recruits are instructed on parachute packing at the 90th Aerial Equipment Depot.