

Ready to serve

Twenty-three-year-old Army Second Lieutenant Roberta Steele alights from a medical supply truck in Qui Nhon in 1966. Steele, from Tillamook, Oregon, was eager to serve in Vietnam and had traded places with a recently married nurse in 1965.