

“How do you ask a man to be the last man to die in Vietnam? ... [To] die for a mistake?”

LIEUTENANT JOHN KERRY TO THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, APRIL 22, 1971

» AFTER

Stung by the intense public criticism, Nixon responded to the protests by taking action.

THE HUSTON PLAN

Convinced that radical groups in the US were linked to foreign governments, Nixon authorized the Huston Plan to wiretap and burglarize the homes of ordinary Americans. This brazen attack on privacy would later come to light in the Watergate scandal.

NO CONSEQUENCES

Nixon created the President's Commission on Campus Unrest in response to the events at Kent State. However, the guardsmen were not punished, and were acquitted by a Grand Jury in 1974.