

“The prisoners of war have not been forgotten.”

RICHARD NIXON, REMARKS AFTER SON TAY RAID, NOVEMBER 25, 1970

Operational success

USAF General Leroy Manor, who planned the Special Forces raid on the Son Tay prison camp in North Vietnam, points to a model of the camp as he declares to a news conference on December 2, 1970, that the raid was an “operational success.”

Homecoming heroes