

Prisoners of War Objects

From 1964 to 1973, hundreds of US servicemen were made prisoners of war (POWs) by the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese. Conditions were often atrocious and the POWs had only the most basic necessities for daily life.