

AUGUST 15, 1973

As the Case-Church Amendment comes into effect, the US Air Force carries out its last bombing mission over Cambodia.

Protester at a rally against Richard Nixon, October 1973

NOVEMBER 7, 1973

Overriding a presidential veto, Congress passes the War Powers Resolution, which severely limits the president's authority to commit US forces to armed conflict.

DECEMBER 31, 1973

About 25,000 ARVN troops have been killed in combat by the end of 1973 despite a supposed ceasefire.

MAY 9, 1974

US Congress begins impeachment proceedings against President Nixon in response to his role in the Watergate scandal.

AUGUST 6, 1974

Congress votes to cut aid for South Vietnam to $700 million in 1975.

AUGUST 9, 1974

Nixon resigns rather than face impeachment. The office of president passes to Nixon's vice president, Gerald Ford.

DECEMBER 13, 1974

The NVA and Viet Cong attack the provincial capital of Phuoc Long to test both the morale of the ARVN and the US response to an open breach of the Paris Peace Accords.