

Going overboard

A helicopter landed on the deck of USS Okinawa by a South Vietnamese pilot is manhandled over the side to make room for further arrivals. South Vietnamese fleeing on their own initiative complicated the evacuation.

“I still grieve over those we were unable to rescue.”

PRESIDENT GERALD FORD, WRITING ABOUT THE APRIL 1975 EVACUATION, JUNE 15, 2000