

Vive La France?

Soldiers of the Third Regiment of the French Foreign Legion stand to attention outside their headquarters in Lang Son in 1950. A decisive Viet Minh victory at the Battle of Route Coloniale 4—a highway to the French base at Cao Bang—saw French units abandon Lang Son later that year.