

Lewis gun

The Mark IV was equipped with a Lewis machine gun in the front ball mount, and one in each sponson. The Lewis was selected partly for its compact magazine.

Commander and driver's cab

Tactical number

THREE-QUARTER VIEW

6-pounder gun in sponson

2324

Vehicle number

Each tank was given a unique four-digit number—usually painted on the rear side—that stayed with the vehicle throughout its life.