

A detailed close-up photograph of the internal mechanical components of a green military tank. The image shows a large, dark metal gear wheel with a green-painted hub and spokes. To the left, a track sprocket with multiple teeth is visible. The background is a green-painted metal surface with rivets. The overall scene is a technical, industrial view of military machinery.

1918-1939

BETWEEN THE WARS