

AUGUST 26–29

Antiwar protests disrupt the Democratic National Convention at Chicago, leading to violent confrontations between demonstrators and police.

Battle of Michigan Avenue, August 1968

OCTOBER 8

Operation Sealords is launched, a long-term campaign by US and South Vietnamese naval and riverine forces against Viet Cong supply lines and bases in the Mekong Delta.

OCTOBER 31

Rolling Thunder, the American bombing campaign against North Vietnam, is terminated, reopening the peace talks.

NOVEMBER 5

Republican candidate Richard Nixon wins the US presidential election, claiming to have a plan to end the war.

DECEMBER 1

By the year's end, there are 495,000 US military personnel in Vietnam; American deaths for the year total 16,899.