

AI CAN DO THAT?!

UNLOCK AI SHORTCUTS THAT FEEL LIKE MAGIC

There's a particular moment that keeps happening lately. You're halfway through a task you've done a hundred times and someone mentions, almost in passing, that AI just does that now. In seconds. For free. And you sit there, jaw somewhere near the floor, thinking: wait, AI can do that?

We're all familiar with ChatGPT by now. But that familiarity is also a trap. It convinces us we've seen what these tools can do, when we haven't even scratched the surface of AI-enabled possibilities. This feature is about everything else you aren't doing with AI. The tools that clone your voice, compose a film score, fold a protein, turn a selfie into a performance, build an app from a sentence. Some you'll have never heard of. Most you can try today. Consider this your invitation to start exploring your true limits, and unlock your AI superpowers!.
