

Digit Community, assemble!

For a trip down memory lane
like no other...

Over the last couple of months, we asked you to send us your memories of Digit, what this magazine, your friendly neighbourhood tech navigator, means to you. And you folks didn't disappoint. Compiling these responses had us teary-eyed and nostalgic at the same time. It also gave the current team awesome insights into what Digit means for its community. Without your love and support, we wouldn't have reached this milestone. Thank you!

Here are just a few of the responses shared with us over the past couple months.

#1 Ultimate coincidence in print

I just started to work on an architecture project and AI multi agent systems. And on the same day I received the monthly copy of my Digit print magazine edition and when I opened it up it had the best poster ever, which was beyond my expectations.

I have attached its image here for all to see. Coincidence? It was a great one.

#2 Valuable answers in each issue

I am only reading from May 2026 onward. I like the DIY issue of February, even though I have yet to apply some of the projects explained over there. But I like your magazine as I get information about what I was looking for.
