

TO SELL

In this case, a red fractal appeared below the 50-period SMA, signalling a potential sell trade. I entered a short position at the fractal's low. Setting my stoploss just above the recent swing high ensured that my risk was well-defined. The trade played out successfully, providing a satisfying 1:2 risk-reward ratio.

