

Alternatively, we may:

1

Short an underlying asset in cash or futures market (Stock/ Index)

2

Buy a Call Option with strike price above the Market price i.e. OTM to protect against a large increase in price of the underlying asset.

3

Finance the purchase of the call option by selling a put option with strike price below the market price. This would help us with a short position on the collar.