

Philip Glass

BORN 1937, AMERICAN

Considered a founding father of US Minimalism, Glass is one of the most influential composers of the late 20th century, thanks to his distinctive use of repetitive musical structures.