

Christoph W. Gluck

1714–1787, AUSTRIAN

Revered by Mozart, Berlioz, and Wagner, Gluck deserves more credit than any other composer for purging opera of virtuoso display in favor of emotional directness and dramatic truth.