

Franz Schubert

1797–1828, AUSTRIAN

A master of melody, Schubert was renowned for his song settings of German poetry. His genius in symphonies and chamber and piano works was cut tragically short by his death at the age of just 31.