

ANNA BOLENA, TITLE PAGE

Title page of the score for Anna Bolena, Donizetti's tragic opera in two acts. It was this work, which premiered in Milan in 1830, that brought the Italian composer international acclaim.

Donizetti completed 65 operas, written for such excellent singers as Giuditta Pasta and the tenor Giovanni Rubini, a fellow native of Bergamo, known for his high notes and expressive voice. While many of Donizetti's operas were performed for decades after his death from