

Franz Liszt

1811–1886, HUNGARIAN

One of the greatest composer-pianists of all time, Liszt raised the music of the Romantic era to a spectacular pinnacle.

Retiring at the height of his fame, he later took minor orders in the Catholic Church.