

EUGENE YSAÏE

Franck's masterful Violin Sonata was written as a wedding gift for the Belgian violinist, conductor, and composer Eugène Ysaÿe (1858–1931).

Interest and acclaim

Success followed rapidly as Franck became first the choirmaster (1853) and then the organist (1858) at the Basilica of St. Clotilde in Paris. This was extremely timely, as he was able to “christen”
