

Bedřich Smetana

1824–1884, CZECH

Smetana sounded a rallying call for Czech independence with a series of enchanting operas and his set of symphonic poems Má vlast, enduring symbols of national pride.