

KEY WORKS

1851

Receives his first major musical appointment, as principal organist at St. Florian, where he had been a boy chorister.

1863

A first encounter with Wagner's music, at a performance of Tannhäuser in Linz, radically influences Bruckner's conservative idiom.

1865

Travels to Munich for the premiere of Wagner's Tristan und Isolde, meeting the composer for the first time.