

Premiere of A German Requiem in Bremen Cathedral; the work establishes Brahms as a major composer.

1876

Premiere of Symphony No. 1 in Karlsruhe; Brahms had labored over the work for 14 years.

1887

Premiere of Double Concerto in Cologne; it was to be Brahms's last orchestral work.

1891

Meets clarinetist Richard Mühlfeld, whose playing inspires Brahms to