

1903

Debussy's taste for the exotic is revealed in Estampes (Prints). The title refers to the vogue for Japanese prints.

1905

One of Debussy's most popular orchestral pieces, La Mer (The Sea), is performed in Paris. It consists of three symphonic sketches.

1913

Jeux (Games), a ballet commissioned by Sergei Diaghilev for his Ballets Russes, is performed. The choreography is by Nijinsky.