

Jean Sibelius

1865–1957, FINNISH

The most powerful composer ever produced by the Nordic countries, Sibelius found remarkable ways of renewing the forms of orchestral music, especially the symphony.