

KEY WORKS

1910

With the premieres of the Tallis Fantasia for strings and A Sea Symphony, Vaughan Williams becomes his generation's leading English composer.

1920

Completed before World War I, The Lark Ascending for violin and small orchestra is now performed for the first time.

1922