

Igor Stravinsky

1882–1971, RUSSIAN

Widely considered the 20th century's paramount composer, Stravinsky transformed music with his radical approach to rhythm. His compositions raised the genre of ballet to an artistic level matched only by Tchaikovsky.