

George Gershwin

1898–1937, AMERICAN

A prolific composer of enduring Broadway show tunes, Gershwin attempted to bridge the gap between popular and classical music in works such as Rhapsody in Blue and the opera Porgy and Bess.