CARL ORFF, C. 1978

Carl Orff

1895–1982, GERMAN

Famous for his choral work Carmina Burana, Orff was born in Munich, Bavaria. Precociously talented, he had written ambitious works by the age of 20. Conscripted in 1917, he was wounded in the trenches during World War I. After the war, he devoted himself to the study of Renaissance and Baroque music. He also worked on an experimental approach to teaching music through drama,
