

PROVIDENT FUNDS

Provident funds are arrangements where employees and employers contribute to a pool, throughout the employment tenure of an individual, out of which a lump-sum is given to the individual upon their retirement. There are three types of provident funds – Employees' Provident Funds (EPF), Voluntary Provident Funds (VPF), and Public Provident Funds (PPF). Let us understand this one by one.

