

First, we need to have two bank accounts to carry out our transactions. People generally carry out all their transactions from one bank account. We will receive our incomes and pay our bills through the first account. We will call it 'Income and Expense Account'. The second account will manage our investments and insurances for our Financial Plan. We will call the second one 'Financial Plan Account'.

