

Introduction

We talked about how to pick and analyse stock ideas. financial ratios, portfolio analysis, and valuation.

And finally, what generates investments of 10x and 100x. Not every investment will get us this, but what are few things that we should look for that increase our chances.

What ought to be its economics?

What should we look out for to make this work?