

Don't get distracted due to short term price movements, Look for favorable valuations.

In the next 12-15 years, we would want the company.

To grow EPS 30x-40x

Bought cheap

Huge market and must be growing.

Since these things are very difficult to identify on a 15 year timeline, we will stick to looking for 10x companies. And looking at its progress, we will decide or evaluate if it has the potential to grow 10x again after growing 10x.
