

Previously,

We learned about the fundamentals of the stock market and its overall working. We understood what exactly a share is. Now let us move further with how an individual can get their money in the stock market? What is its underlying system and structure?

We also need to understand the economics of the financial markets and how the capital flows in financial systems.