

The best time to buy stocks is when its valuation is low.

There is always a chance that they will drop even further, but that is not what we are concerned about. If we buy at attractive valuations, irrespective where stock goes in short term, ultimately we will make money.

